NPC Recognizes 36 College Panhellenics With Awards for 2022-23

INDIANAPOLIS — The National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), the largest advocacy and support organization for the women’s sorority experience, is pleased to announce the 2022-23 College Panhellenic Association Awards recipients. The College Panhellenic Associations listed have been recognized for their accomplishments in Panhellenic operations and work to support the women’s-only sorority experience during 2022-23.

College Panhellenic Associations are affiliates of NPC established to enable cooperation among the women’s-only sororities on campus. Each College Panhellenic Association is student-led and composed of all NPC member sorority chapters on the respective campus.

“These College Panhellenic Associations have excelled in their focus on high achievement and intentional programming and support for their communities,” said Christa Sobon, 2022-24 College Panhellenics Committee chair. “We’re thrilled to recognize these associations and their member chapters for excellence and innovation in Panhellenic operations during the previous academic year. ”

College Panhellenic Associations were eligible for recognition for their work in academic innovation, community impact, judicial procedure, leadership, marketing, programming and recruitment. Additionally, to receive an Excellence Award or an Innovation Award, the College Panhellenic must demonstrate a set of Panhellenic core competencies, such as adhering to NPC Unanimous Agreements and policies, meeting deadlines for dues and reports and keeping NPC’s information and contacts database up to date.

Following is the list of College Panhellenics recognized with 2022-23 awards by award category.
